If you are dissatisfied

If you are a private individual, or fall within the criteria set out below, we will also advise you of your right to refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS) if you are dissatisfied with the delay, or if you are dissatisfied with the final response you have received, at whichever stage of the process it is issued to you provided we have had an adequate opportunity to resolve your complaint first.

An eligible complainant must be a person that is:

- 1) a consumer; or
- 2) a micro-enterprise; or
- 3) a charity which has an annual income of less than £6.5 million at the time the complainant refers the complaint to the respondent; or
- 4) a trustee of a trust which has a net asset value of less than £5 million at the time the complainant refers the complaint to the respondent; or
- 5) a small business at the time the complainant refers the complaint to the respondent; or
- 6) a guarantor.

A micro-enterprise is a business which:

- has a turnover or annual balance sheet that does not exceed €2 million.
- employs fewer than ten persons.

A small business is an enterprise which:

- is not a micro-enterprise.
- has an annual turnover of less than £6.5 million.
- has a balance sheet total of less than £5 million or employs fewer than fifty employees.

The FOS sets time limits for consumers to refer complaints to them and they will not consider a complaint unless the firm has been given an opportunity to resolve it and at least eight weeks have elapsed from the date the complaint was made. A complaint must then be referred to FOS within:

- six months from the business sending the consumer a final response (which has to mention the six-month time limit); and
- six years from the event the consumer is complaining about (or, if later, three years from when the consumer knew, or could reasonably have known, they had cause to complain).
